

Remembrance Sunday

The order of the Remembrance service is in the service booklet.

Collect and readings for the 3rd Sunday before Advent

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings: Amos 5.18-24, 1 Thessalonians 4.13-end, Matthew 25.1-13.

Evensong will be celebrated here at 6 o'clock this evening.

St.Thomas': 6 pm Remembrance Parade

Autumn Bible Study: No meeting this week. Continues on Wednesday, 22nd: Gulval at 10.30, St.Thomas' at 7.30.

The funeral of Tony Humphreys will take place in Madron Church on Monday, 13th November at 2.30pm, and afterwards at the Old Vicarage.

Continue to pray for the families of Tony Humphreys and Peter Michell, and for Kay.

Families@4 on Sunday 26th: Revd Jo needs help with preparing the teas (for 45 or more people), and clearing up afterwards. Please email her, <josophiet@aol.com>, if you are able to help.

The choir sang:

Who are these men, who march so proud
Who quietly weep, eyes closed, heads bowed?
These are the men who once were boys,
Who missed out on youth and all its joys.

Who are these men with aged faces
Who silently count the empty places?

These are the men who gave their all,
Who fought for their country for freedom for all.

Who are these men with sorrowful look,
Who still can remember the lives that were took?
These are the men who saw young men die.
The price of peace is always high.

Who are these men who in the midst of pain
Comfort to those they would not see again?
These are the men whose hands held tomorrow,
Who brought back our future with blood tears and sorrow.

Who are these men who promise to keep
Alive in their hearts the ones God holds asleep?
These are the men to whom I promise again
Veterans, my friends, I Will Remember Them.
