Amen.

Important notices from the PCC

Recruitment of our Priest in Charge.

Those of you were in the churches last Sunday will have heard the Archdeacon announce the latest situation following the advertisement for our Priest in Charge.

There was only one application received but the shortlisting group felt that this candidate should be interviewed, as they were a very close fit for our post.

The parish visit and interview day were arranged but unfortunately the candidate withdrew their application just days before the parish visit. The Gulval and Madron parish reps will now meet with the Archdeacon to discuss the next step with re-advertising (after Easter) as the most likely step.
